Yonsei Northeast Asia Network Forum 2014

Highschool Observer Recruitment

About YNEAN 2014

Yonsei Northeast Asian Network (YNEAN) is an annual academic forum for global students hosted by Yonsei IEWS Leadership Center. We invite you to an academic, cultural and inter-regional event of prominent future leaders over the world. The main theme of YNEAN 2014 is “Asian Paradox: Competition or Cooperation,” comprehensively focusing on the disconnection among the NEA countries between the growing economic interdependence on the one hand, and the backward political, security cooperation on the other. YNEAN 2014 consists of five academic sessions—politics, business, culture, environment, and IT—which all plan to issue the Asian Paradox from diverse perspectives concerning matters of Northeast Asia. Among the five sessions, YNEAN 2014 provides a precious opportunity for high school students to listen to the lectures of the business session given by outstanding speakers, and participate in the various activities provided. We hope that with this forum, high school students could further enhance their capacity and insight as the future leaders of Northeast Asia.

[YNEAN 2014 Observer Program]

1) Plenary Session (August 12th, 2014)

Program	About
---------	-------

Opening Ceremony	Opening Speech is the main event of the YNEAN forum. Yonsei IEWS Leadership Center's Head Chief Professor Lee Jung Hoon, will open the grand forum with a special guest speaker, wishing the success of YNEAN 2014 and discussing the prospects of Northeast Asia.
Keynote Speech	Keynote speech is about learning the overall global situation and the direction of Northeast Asia related to our main theme. The keynote speaker will also make points about the appropriate qualification for prospective leaders who are essential for the future of Northeast Asia. After the speech, Observers can ask questions and answer freely and discuss the main subject. So far, YNEAN had one of the world's most respected speakers such as Daejoong Kim, the former President of Republic of Korea and Mong-Joon Jung, the chairman of the 2002 FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee and also the member of the National Assembly. We plan to invite another keynote speaker for this year's forum.
Diplomatic Round Table	Diplomatic Round Table(DRT) delves on Northeast Asia's pending issues through discussions conducted by ambassadors of various countries related to Northeast Asia. In the DRT, students can actually participate in the discussion as well as having Q&A session with current ambassadors. YNEAN had the honor of inviting ambassadors of the U.S. Embassy, China, Japan, EU, India and many other countries. We plan to open another successful DRT session for this year's forum.

2) Observer Program (August 12th - 14th, 2014)

Program	About
Academic Lectures	Observers will have the chance to participate in the lecture of Business Session with other college delegates. Observers will have the opportunity to listen to priceless lectures of our prominent speakers.

Observer Activity	Based on the lectures, Observers will engage in insightful activities prepared by YNEAN 2014, discussing related topics according to the session. Not only academic activities but Observers will also get the chance to participate in fun activities such as Icebreaking and Campus Tour of Yonsei University's Song-do Campus with our Organizing Committee.
Observer Presentation	As the result of Observer Activity, there will be an Observer Presentation session on the last day. The Best Observer Team prize will be given to the group that actively participates in the presentation and shows great results.
